For courses in
Nutrition Education and
Food Service Management

Each year, the SNA of MA awards up to $1000 in scholarships with a maximum of $250 per person. Acceptable courses are those which will improve skills or prepare you for a leadership position in school food service work to benefit child nutrition programs.

Additionally...

Scholarships recognizing Monya Geller's contribution to nutrition education and school food service will be awarded for courses in nutrition education and school food service management.

All courses are to be taken at universities or colleges or other institutions offering training courses to benefit individuals in school food service. SNA's credentialing program, management institute and other courses may apply.

Courses are subject to approval by the Scholarship Committee.
